

NICOLETTA ROSELLINI

Official Artist Biography | October 2026

Nicoletta Rosellini is an Italian metal vocalist and songwriter, best known as the founder, lead singer and principal songwriter of the power metal band Alterium. Her career spans more than fifteen years across power, symphonic and gothic metal.

Born on 27 April 1991 in Lucca, Tuscany, Italy, Nicoletta began studying classical piano at the age of six and joined her first rock band as a vocalist at fifteen. She later pursued professional vocal training, developing a versatile style suited to both powerful melodic passages and atmospheric performances.

In late 2022, she founded Alterium with former Kalidia bandmates Paolo Campitelli and Dario Gozzi, joined by Alessandro Mammola and Luca Scalabrin. As the band's principal songwriter, she contributes lyrics, vocal melodies and music inspired by mythology, history and fantasy.

Alterium released their debut album, Of War and Flames, through AFM Records in March 2024. Produced by Lars Rottkowitz (Freedom Call), the album combines European power metal with symphonic arrangements and gained international attention across streaming and video platforms. Additional editions were released in Japan and Brazil.

In July 2025, Alterium independently released the EP Stormrage. Further milestones included their US live debut at ProgPower USA in Atlanta, a European tour supporting Fabio Lione's Dawn of Victory in 2025, and their first performances in Japan in August 2026. With work on their second studio album nearing completion, Alterium are aiming for a release in 2027.

Since 2015, Nicoletta has also been the lead vocalist of Walk in Darkness, an atmospheric gothic metal studio project. She has contributed to five studio albums, exploring a more introspective side of her voice through the project's internationally successful music videos and releases.

She is also one of three lead vocalists in The Erinyes, alongside Justine Daaé and Mizuho Lin. The symphonic metal project's self-titled debut album was released through Frontiers Music in 2022.

Before founding Alterium, Nicoletta co-founded and fronted Kalidia (2010–2022), releasing Lies' Device (2014) and The Frozen Throne (2018) and performing across Europe. Her other credits include collaborations with Mortemia, Rhapsody of Fire, Bloodorn and BardoMagno, as well as studio and live work with the Vivaldi Metal Project.

Nicoletta has also released more than 50 vocal covers spanning metal, rock, pop and video game music on her YouTube channel.

Beyond music, she works part-time as a veterinarian and creates content related to gaming, fantasy culture and alternative fashion, including appearances at major Italian comic and gaming conventions.
